CELEBRANT: The Reverend Peter Hrytsyk, Assumption Church, Windsor

✠ WELCOME to St. Josaphat Church for the celebration of the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass according to the Traditional Latin "Tridentine" Form. Join us as we render glory to God according to Holy Mother Church's historic liturgy, employing her rich treasury of sacred music. The Tridentine Mass is offered here at St. Josaphat every Sunday at 9:30 AM, and every Monday at 7:00 PM.

✠ THE CEREMONIES OF HOLY WEEK were changed in 1955. If you are using a hand missal printed before 1955, you will notice differences between what is printed in your missal, and what is being read today. In accordance with Vatican directives, we strictly follow the 1962 edition of the Missále Románum.

✠ A NEW PSALTER was introduced along with the Holy Week changes, meaning some wording of the Psalms in Latin was changed. This applies to the Solemn Lauds at the end of Mass today. Not all post-1955 hand missals make use of the new Psalter, though the official 1962 Latin Altar Missal specifies that they should. Likewise, not all hand missals' English translations accurately reflect the modified Latin wording. This handout strives to provide both the correct original Latin, and English translations, according to the new Psalter.

✠ RED LATIN/ENGLISH MISSALS ARE AVAILABLE FOR SALE after Mass at the missal cart in the vestibule for $5.00 each. These missals can help familiarize yourself, family, and friends with the Traditional Latin Mass.

*Through the bowels of the mercy of our God, * in which the Orient from on high hath visited us,*

*To enlighten them that sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, * to direct our feet into the way of peace.*

*Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.*

*As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.*

Ant. And very early in the morning, the first day of the week, they came to the sepulchre, the sun being now risen, alleluia.

Pour forth upon us, O Lord, the spirit of Thy love: that those whose hunger Thou hast satisfied with the Sacraments of Easter may in Thy kindness be one in heart. Through our Lord...in the unity with the same Holy Ghost.

THE BLESSING OF THE FIRE

Tonight's liturgy makes us of fire and light as symbols of Christ, whose teaching enlightens the minds of the faithful.

The lights in the church are kept off until the Gloria, to focus our attention on the One True Light.

THE BLESSING OF THE NEW FIRE

✠ Dóminus vobíscum.

Per eúmdem Christum Dóminum nostrum.

✠ Amen.

✠ The Lord be with you.

✠ And with thy spirit.

Let us pray.

O God, Who hast bestowed on the faithful the fire of Thy brightness by Thy Son, Who is the Cornerstone, hallow + this new fire produced from a flint that it may be profitable to us: and grant that during this Paschal festival we may be so inflamed with heavenly desires, that with pure minds we may come to the solemnity of perpetual light. Through the same Christ our Lord.

✠ Amen.

THE BLESSING OF THE PASCHAL CANDLE

The priest draws the first and last letters of the Greek alphabet on the Paschal Candle, because Christ is the Beginning and the End of all things. He then fixes five grains of incense in the candle, representing the five wounds which remained in our Lord's Body after His Resurrection. The Paschal Candle is then lit from the new fire, after which the priest blesses the candle.

The Agnus Dei and the first of the priest's three Prayers Before Communion are omitted today.

Catholics in the state of grace are invited to kneel at the Communion Rail to receive Holy Communion. Communion is received on the tongue only. Holy Communion is not given in the hand at the Tridentine Mass. If you cannot come to the rail, please inform one of the ushers, and Communion will be brought to you.

COMMUNION Jubiláte Dómino

Accept, we beseech Thee, O Lord, the prayers of Thy people together with the sacrifice they offer: that what has been begun by the Paschal Mysteries, may by Thine arrangement result in our eternal healing. Through our Lord.

It is truly meet and just, right and for our salvation, at all times to praise Thee, O Lord, but more gloriously especially on this night, when Christ our Pasch was sacrificed. For He is the true Lamb who hath taken away the sins of the world. Who by dying hath destroyed our death, and by rising again hath restored us to life. And therefore with Angels and Archangels, with Thrones and Dominations, and with all the hosts of the heavenly army, we sing the hymn of Thy glory, ever more saying:

Having communion in, and keeping the most holy night of the Resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ according to the flesh; and also reverencing the memory, first, of the glorious Mary, ever Virgin, Mother of the same our God and Lord Jesus Christ, as also...

We therefore beseech Thee, O Lord, graciously to accept this oblation of our service, as also of Thy whole family, which we make unto Thee on behalf of these whom Thou hast vouchsafed to bring to a new birth by water and the Holy Ghost, granting them remission of all their sins: and to dispose our days...

THE PASCHAL PROCLAMATION

The light from the Paschal Candle is now used to light the candles held by the congregation as the Exsúltet is sung. As Christ's teaching spreads to all corners of the world, so does the fire struck by the priest light all candles in the church.

Let the earth also rejoice, made radiant by such splendor; and, enlightened with the brightness of the eternal King, let it know that the darkness of the whole world is scattered.

Let our mother the Church also rejoice, adorned with the brightness of so great a light; and let this temple resound with the loud acclamations of the people.

Wherefore I beseech you, most beloved brethren, who are here present in the wondrous brightness of this holy light, to invoke with me the mercy of almighty God. That He who has vouchsafed to admit me among the Levites, without any merits of mine, would pour forth the brightness of His light upon me, and enable me to perfect the praise of this wax candle.

eternal Father the debt of Adam, and by the merciful shedding of His Blood, cancelled the guilt incurred by original sin.

For this is the Paschal Festival; in which that true Lamb is slain, with Whose Blood the doorposts of the faithful are consecrated.

This is the night in which Thou didst formerly cause our forefathers, the children of Israel, when brought out of Egypt, to pass through the Red Sea with dry foot.

This, therefore, is the night which dissipated the darkness of sinners by the light of the pillar.

This is the night which at this time throughout the world restores to grace and unites in sanctity those that believe in Christ, and are separated from the vices of the world and the darkness of sinners.

This is the night in which, destroying the chains of death, Christ arose victorious from the grave. For it would have profited us nothing to have been born, unless redemption had also been bestowed upon us.

O wondrous condensation of Thy mercy towards us!

O inestimable affection of love: that Thou mightest redeem a slave, Thou didst deliver up Thy Son!

O truly needful sin of Adam, which was blotted out by the death of Christ!

O happy fault, that merited to possess such and so great a Redeemer!

O truly blessed night, which alone deserved to know the time and hour when Christ rose again from hell! This is the night of which it is written: And the night shall be as clear as the day; and the night is my light in my delights.

Therefore the hallowing of this night puts to flight all wickedness, cleanses sins, and restores innocence to the fallen, and gladness to the sorrowful. It drives forth hatreds, it prepares concord, and brings down haughtiness.

Wherefore, in this sacred night, receive, O holy Father, the evening sacrifice of this incense, which holy Church renders to Thee by the hands of Thy ministers in the solemn offering of this wax candle, made out of the work of bees.

Now also we know the praises of this pillar, which the shining fire enkindles to the honor of God. Which fire, although divided into parts, suffers no loss from its light being borrowed. For it is nourished by the melting wax, which the mother bee produced for the substance of this precious light.

O truly blessed night, which plundered the Egyptians and enriched the Hebrews! A night in which heavenly things are

OFFERTORY HYMN O FÍLII ET FÍLLÆ

O God, who dost illuminate this most holy night by the glory of the Lord's Resurrection, preserve in the new children of Thy family the spirit of adoption which Thou hast given; that renewed in body and mind, they may render to Thee a pure service. Through the same our Lord.

Brethren, if you be risen with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is sitting at the right hand of God: mind the things that are above, not the things that are upon the earth. For you are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God. When Christ shall appear, Who is your life, then you also shall appear with Him in glory.

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia. ℣. Ps. 117. 1 Give praise to the Lord for He is good: for His mercy endureth forever.

O praise the Lord, all ye nations, and praise Him, all ye people. For His mercy is confirmed upon us: and the truth of the Lord remaineth forever.

And in the end of the Sabbath, when it began to dawn towards the first day of the week, came Mary Magdalen and the other Mary to see the sepulchre. And behold there was a great earthquake. For an Angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and coming, rolled back the stone and sat upon it: and his countenance was as lightening and his raiment as snow. And for fear of him the guards were struck with terror and became as dead men. And the Angel answering, said to the women: Fear not you: for I know that you seek Jesus who was crucified: He is not here: for His is risen, as He said. Come and see the place where the Lord was laid. And going quickly, tell ye His disciples that He is risen: and behold He will go before you into Galilee: there you shall see Him. Lo, I have foretold it to you.

LESSONS FROM THE PROPHECIES

FIRST PROPHECY Genesis 1. 1-31; 2. 1, 2

In principio creávit Deus cælum et terram. Terra autem erat inánis et vacua, et ténebræ erant super fáciem abyssi: et Spíritus Dei ferebátur super aquas. Dixitque Deus: Fiat lux. Et facta est lux. Et vidit Deus lucem quod esset bona: et divisit lucem a ténebris. Appellavitque lucem Diem, et ténebras Noctem: factúmque est vespere et mane, dies unus. Dixit quoque Deus: Fiat firmaméntum in médio aquárum: et dividat aquas ab aquis. Et fecit Deus firmaméntum, divisitque aquas quæ erant sub firmaménto, ab his quæ erant super firmaméntum. Et factum est ita. Vocávit Deus firmaméntum Cælum: et factum est vespere et mane, dies secúndus. Dixit vero Deus: Congregéntur aquæ, quæ sub cælo sunt, in locum unum: et appáreat árida. Et factum est ita. Et vocávit Deus áridam, Terram: congregationésque aquárum united to those of earth, and things divine to those which are of man.

We beseech Thee, therefore, O Lord, that this wax candle hallowed in honor of Thy Name, may continue to burn to dissipate the darkness of this night. And being accepted as a sweet savor, may be united with the heavenly lights. Let the morning star find its flame alight. That star, I mean, which knows no setting. He Who returning from hell, serenely shone forth upon mankind.

We beseech Thee therefore, O Lord, that Thou wouldst grant peaceful times during this Paschal Festival, and vouchsafe to rule, govern, and keep with Thy constant protection us Thy servants, and all the clergy, and the devout people, together with our most holy Father, Pope N., and our Bishop N.

Have regard, also, for those who reign over us, and, grant them Thine ineffable kindness and mercy, direct their thoughts in justice and peace, that from their earthy toil, they may come to their heavenly reward with all Thy people.

Through the same Jesus Christ Thy Son, our Lord, who with Thee liveth and reigneth in the unity of the Holy Ghost, God:

World without end

℟. Amen.

In the beginning God created heaven and earth. And the earth was void and empty, and darkness was upon the face of the deep: and the Spirit of God moved over the waters. And God said: Be light made. And light was made. And God saw the light that it was good: and He divided the light from the darkness. And He called the light Day, and the darkness Night: and there was evening and morning, one day. And God said: Let there be a firmament made amidst the waters: and let it divide the waters from the waters. And God made a firmament, and divided the waters that were under the firmament from those that were above the firmament. And it was so. And God called the firmament Heaven: and the evening and morning were the second day. God also said: Let the waters that are under the heaven be gathered together into one place; and let the dry land appear. And it was so done. And God called the dry land Earth: and the gathering appellávit Mária. Et vidit Deus quod esset bonum. Et ait: Gérmínet terra herbam viréntem, et faciéntem semen, et lignum pomíferum fáciens fructum iuxta genus suum, cuius semen in semetípso sit super terram. Et factum est ita. Et prótulit terra herbam viréntem, et faciéntem semen iuxta genus suum, lignúmque fáciens fructum, et habens unumquódque seméntem secúndum spéciem suam. Et vidit Deus quod esset bonum. Et factum est vespere et mane, dies tertius. Dixit autem Deus: Fiant luminária in firmaménto cæli, et dividant diem ac noctem, et sint in signa et témpora, et dies et annos: ut lúceant in firmaménto cæli, et illúminant terram. Et factum est ita. Fecítque Deus duo luminária magna: luminária majus, ut præesset diéi, et lumináre minus, ut præesset nocti: et stellas. Et pósuit eas in firmaménto cæli, ut lucérent super terram, et præessent diéi ac nocti, et dividerent lucem ac ténebras. Et vidit Deus quod esset bonum. Et factum est vespere et mane, dies quartus. Dixit étiam Deus: Prodúcant aquæ réptile ánimæ vivéntis, et volátile super terram sub firmaménto cæli. Creavitque Deus cete grándia, et omnem ánimam vivéntem atque motábilem, quam prodúxerant aquæ in spécies suas, et omne volátile secúndum genus suum. Et vidit Deus quod esset bonum. Benedixitque eis, dicens: Créscite, et multiplicámini, et repléte aquas maris: avésque multiplicéntur super terram. Et factum est vespere et mane, dies quintus. Dixit quoque Deus: Prodúcat terra ánimam vivéntem in génere suo: juménta, et reptília, et béstias terræ secúndum spécies suas. Factúmque est ita. Et fecit Deus quod esset bonum, et ait: Faciámus hóminem ad imáginem et similitúdinem nostram: et præsit piscibus maris, et volatilibus cæli, et béstiis, universæque terræ, omnique réptili quod movétur in terra. Et creávit Deus hóminem ad imáginem suam: ad imáginem Dei creávit illum, másculum et féminam creávit eos. Benedixitque illis Deus, et ait: Créscite et multiplicámini, et repléte terram, et subjícite eam, et dominámini piscibus maris, et volatilibus cæli, et univérsis animántibus, quæ movéntur super terram. Dixitque Deus: Ecce dedi vobis omnem herbam afferéntem semen super terram, et univérsa ligna quæ habent in semetípsis seméntem géneris sui, ut sint vobis in escam: et cunctis animántibus terræ, omnique vólucris cæli, et univérsis, quæ movéntur in terra, et in together of the waters He called Seas. And God saw that it was good. And He said: Let the earth bring forth his green herb, and such as may seed, and the fruit tree yielding fruit after its kind, which may have seed in itself upon the earth. And it was so done. And the earth brought forth the green herb, and such as yieldeth seed according to its kind, and the tree that beareth fruit, having seed, each one according to its kind. And God saw that it was good. And the evening and morning were the third day. And God said: Let there be lights made in the firmament of heaven to divide the day and the night, and let them be for signs, and for seasons, and for days and years: to shine in the firmament of heaven, and to give light upon the earth. And it was so done. And God made two great lights: a greater light to rule the day; and a lesser light to rule the night: and the stars. And He set them in the firmament of heaven, to shine upon the earth, and to rule the day and the night, and to divide the light and the darkness. And God saw that it was good. And the evening and morning were the fourth day. God also said: Let the waters bring forth the creeping creature having life, and the fowl that may fly over the earth under the firmament of heaven. And God created the great whales, and every living and moving creature which the waters brought forth, according to their kinds, and every winged fowl according to its kind. And God saw that it was good. And He blessed them, saying: Increase and multiply, and fill the waters of the sea: and let the birds be multiplied upon the earth. And the evening and the morning were the fifth day. And God said: Let the earth bring forth the living creature in its kind, cattle, and creeping things, and beasts of the earth according to their kinds. And it was so done. And God made the beasts of the earth according to their kinds, and cattle, and every thing that creepeth on the earth after its kind. And God saw that it was good. And He said: Let Us make man to Our own image and likeness: and let him have dominion over the fishes of the sea, and the fowls of the air, and the beasts, and the whole earth, and every creeping creature that moveth upon the earth. And God created man to His own image: to the image of God He created him, male and female He created them. And God blessed them, saying: Increase and multiply, and fill the earth, and subdue it, and rule over the fishes of the sea, and the fowls of the air, and all living creatures that move upon the earth. And God said: Behold, I have given you every herb-bearing seed upon the earth, and all trees that have in themselves seed of their own kind, to be your meat:

PSALM 41. 2-4

Sicut cervus desiderat ad fontes aquarum: ita desiderat anima mea ad te, Deus. Sitivit anima mea ad Deum vivum, quando veniam, et apparebo ante faciem Dei? Fuérunt mihi lacrimae meae panes die ac nocte, dum dicitur mihi per singulos dies: Ubi est Deus tuus?

Orémus.

Omnípotens sempitérne Deus, réspice propítius ad devotíonem pópuli renascéntis, qui sicut cervus aquarum tuarum expetit fontem: et concéde propítius; ut fidei ipsiús sitis, baptísmatis mystério, ánimam corpúsque sanctíficet. Per Dóminum.

Sung Setting by G. P. da Palestrina

As the hart panteth after the fountains of water, so my soul panteth after Thee, O God. My soul hath thirsted for the living God: when shall I come and appear before the face of God? My tears have become my bread day and night, while they say to me daily: Where is thy God?

✠. The Lord be with you.

℞. And with thy spirit.

Let us pray.

O Almighty and everlasting God, look mercifully on the devotion of Thy people about to be reborn, who like the hart pant after the fountain of Thy waters: and mercifully grant that the thirst of their faith may, by the Sacrament of Baptism, hallow their souls and bodies. Through our Lord.

and to all the beasts of the earth, and to every fowl of the air, and to all that move upon the earth, and wherein there is life, that they may have to feed upon. And it was so done. And God saw all the things that He had made, and they were very good. And the evening and morning were the sixth day. So the heavens and the earth were finished, and all the furniture of them. And on the seventh day God ended His work which He had made: and He rested on the seventh day from all His work which He had done.

Let us pray.

Let us kneel.

O God, who hast wonderfully created man, and more wonderfully redeemed him: grant us, we beseech Thee, to stand firm with strong minds against the allurements of sin, that we may deserve to arrive at everlasting joys. Through our Lord.

THE RENEWAL OF BAPTISMAL PROMISES

This ceremony takes the place of the Creed in tonight's Mass, as a solemn profession of our faith.

The congregation holds their lighted candles through the end of this rite.

THE RENEWAL OF BAPTISMAL PROMISES

Hac sacratíssima nocte, fratres caríssimi, sancta Mater Ecclésia, récolens Dómini nostri Jesu Christi mortem et sepultúram, eum redamándo vígilat; et, célebrans ejúsdem gloriósam resurrecciónem, lætabúnda gaudet. Quóniam vero, ut docet Apóstolus, consepúlti sumus cum Christo per baptísmum in mortem, quómodo Christus resurréxit a mórtuis, ita et nos in novitate vitæ opórtet ambuláre; sciéntes, véterem hóminem nostrum simul cum Christo crucifíxum esse, ut ultra non serviámus peccáto. Existimémus ergo nos mórtuos quidem esse peccáto, vivéntis autem Deo in Christo Jesu Dómino nostro.

Quaprópter, fratres caríssimi, quadagesimáli exercitatióne absolúta, sancti baptismatis promissíonis renovémus, quibus olim Sátanæ et opéribus ejus, sicut et mundo, qui inimicus est Dei, abrenuntiávimus, et Deo in sancta Ecclésia cathólica fidéliter servíre promísimus. Ítaque:

Célebrans. Abrenuntiátis Sátanæ?

Omnes. Abrenuntiámus.

C. Et ómnibus opéribus ejus?

O. Abrenuntiámus.

On this most sacred night, dearly beloved brethren, Holy Mother Church, recalling the death and burial of our Lord Jesus Christ, returneth His love by keeping vigil; and aboundeth with joy at celebrating His glorious Resurrection. But because, as the Apostle teaches, we are baptized into His death and buried together with Christ: and as Christ rose again from the dead, so we too must walk in newness of life; knowing that our old man hath been crucified together with Christ so that we shall no longer be in servitude to sin. Let us look upon ourselves therefore as dead indeed to sin but living to God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Therefore, dearly beloved brethren, the Lenten observance now completed, let us renew the promises of baptism by which formerly we renounced Satan and his works, and the world likewise, the enemy of God; and by which we promised to serve God faithfully in the Holy Catholic Church. Therefore:

Priest. Do you renounce Satan?

Congregation. We do renounce him.

P. And all his works?

C. We do renounce them.

SECOND PROPHECY Exodus 14. 24-31; 15. 1

In diébus illis: Factum est in vigília matutína, et ecce respiciens Dóminus super castra Ægyptiórum per colúmnam ignis et nubis, interfécit exercítum eórum: et subvértit rotas cúrruum, ferebantúrque in profúndum. Dixérunt ergo Ægýptii: Fugiámus Israélem: Dóminus enim pugnat pro eis contra nos. Et ait Dóminus ad Móysen: Exténde manum tuam super mare, ut revertántur aquæ ad Ægýptios super currus et équites eórum. Cumque extendísset Móyses manum contra mare, revérsus est primo dilúculo ad priórem locum: fugientibúsqe Ægýptiis occurrérunt aquæ, et invólvit eos Dóminus in médiis flúctibus. Reversæque sunt aquæ, et operuérunt currus et équites cuncti exercítus Pharaónis, qui sequéntes ingrési fuérant mare: nec unus quidem supérduit ex eis. Filii autem Israél perrexérunt per médium sicci maris, et aquæ eis erant quasi pro muro a dextris et a sinistris: liberavítque Dóminus in die illa Israél de manu Ægyptiórum. Et vidérunt Ægýptios mórtuos super littus maris, et manum magnam, quam exercúerat Dóminus contra eos: timúitque pópulus Dóminum, et credidérunt Dómino, et Móysi servo ejus. Tunc cécinít Móyses, et filii Israél carmen hoc Dómino, et dixérunt:

In those days, it came to pass in the morning watch, and behold the Lord looking upon the Egyptian army through the pillar of fire and of the cloud, slew their host: and overthrew the wheels of the chariots, and they were carried into the deep. And the Egyptians said: Let us flee from Israel: for the Lord fighteth for them against us. And the Lord said to Moses: Stretch forth thy hand over the sea, that the waters may come again upon the Egyptians, upon their chariots and horsemen. And when Moses had stretched forth his hand towards the sea, it returned at the first break of day to the former place: and as the Egyptians were fleeing away the waters came upon them, and the Lord shut them up in the middle of the waves. And the waters returned, and covered the chariots and the horsemen of all the army of Pharaoh, who had come into the sea after them: neither did there so much as one of them remain. But the children of Israel marched through the midst of the sea upon dry land, and the waters were to thm as a wall on the right hand and on the left: and the Lord delivered Israel on that day out of the hand of the Egyptians. And they saw the Egyptians dead upon the sea shore, and the mighty hand that the Lord had used against them: and the people feared the Lord, and they believed the Lord, and Moses His servant. Then Moses and the children of Israel sung this canticle to the Lord, and said:

THIRD PROPHECY Isaias 4. 2-6

In die illa erit germen Dómini in magnificéntia, et glória, et fructus terræ sublimis, et exultatio his, qui salváti fuerint de Israë. Et erit: Omnis qui relictus fuerit in Sion, et residuus in Jerúsalem, sanctus vocábitur, omnis qui scriptus est in vita in Jerúsalem. Si ablúerit Dóminus sordes filiárum Sion, et sánguinem Jerúsalem láverit de médio ejus, in spírítu judícii, et spírítu ardóris. Et creábit Dóminus super omnem locum montis Sion, et ubi invocátus est, nubem per diem, et fumum, et splendórem ignis flammántis in nocte: super omnem enim glóriam protéctio. Et tabernáculum erit in umbráculum diéi ab æstu, et in securitatē, et absconsiōnem a túrbine, et a plúvia.

CANTICLE Isaias 5. 1, 2, 7

Vinea facta est dilécto in cornu, in loco úberi. ℟̅. Et macériam circúmdedit, et circumfódit: et plantávit vineam Sorec: et ædificávit turrim in médio ejus. ℟̅. Et tórcular fodit in ea: vinea enim Dómini Sábaoth, domus Israë est.

Orémus.

Let us sing to the Lord, for He is gloriously honored: the horse and the rider He hath thrown into the sea: He has become my Helper and Protector unto salvation. ℟̅. He is my God, and I will honor Him: the God of my father, and I will extol Him. ℟̅. He is the Lord that destroys wars: the Lord is His Name.

*Let us pray.
Let us kneel.
Arise.*

O God, Whose ancient miracles we see shining also in our days, whilst by the water of regeneration Thou dost operate for the salvation of the Gentiles, that which by the power of Thy right hand Thou didst confer upon one people, by delivering them from the Egyptian persecution: grant that all the nations of the world may become the children of Abraham, and partake of the dignity of the people of Israel. Through our Lord.

℞. Amen.

In that day the bud of the Lord shall be in magnificence and glory, and the fruit of the earth shall be high, and a great joy to them that shall have escaped of Israel. And it shall come to pass, that every one that shall be left in Sion, and that shall remain in Jerusalem, shall be called holy, every one that is written in life in Jerusalem. If the Lord shall wash away the filth of the daughters of Sion, and shall wash away the blood of Jerusalem out of the midst thereof, by the spirit of judgment and by the spirit of burning. And the Lord will create upon every place of Mount Sion, and where He is called upon, a cloud by day, and a smoke and the brightness of a flaming fire in the night: for over all the glory shall be a protection. And there shall be a tabernacle for a shade in the daytime from the heat, and for a security and covert from the whirlwind, and from rain.

My beloved had a vineyard on a hill in a fruitful place. ℟̅. And he enclosed it with a fence, and made a ditch round it, and planted it with the vine of Sorec, and built a tower in the midst thereof. ℟̅. And he made a winepress in it: for the vineyard of the Lord of hosts is the house of Israel.

Let us pray.

rivers. Who, changing thy bitterness in the desert into sweetness made thee fit to drink, and produced thee out of a rock to quench the thirsty people. I bless † thee also by our Lord Jesus Christ, His only Son: Who in Cana of Galilee changed thee into wine by a wonderful miracle of His power. Who walked upon thee with dry foot, and was baptized in thee by John in the Jordan. Who made thee flow out of His side together with His Blood, and commanded His disciples that such as believed should be baptized in thee, saying: Go, teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.

Do thou, almighty God, mercifully assist us who observe this commandment: do Thou graciously inspire us.

Do Thou with Thy mouth bless these clear waters: that besides their natural virtue of cleansing the body, they may also prove efficacious for the purifying of the soul.

May the virtue of the Holy Ghost descend into all the water of this font.

And make the whole substance of this water fruitful for regeneration.

Here may the stains of all sins be washed out; here may human nature, created in Thine image, and reformed to the honor of its Author, be cleansed from all the filth of the old man: that all who receive the Sacrament of regeneration, may be born again new children of true innocence. Through our Lord Jesus Christ Thy Son: Who shall come to judge the living and the dead, and the world by fire.

May this font be sanctified and made fruitful by the Oil of salvation, for those who are born anew therein unto life everlasting.

May the infusion of the Chrism of our Lord Jesus Christ, and of the Holy Ghost the Comforter, be made in the Name of the Holy Trinity.

May this mixture of the Chrism of sanctification, and of the Oil of unction, and of the water of Baptism, be made to the name of the † Father, and of the † Son, and of the Holy † Ghost.

Vere dignum et justum est, æquum et salutäre, nos tibi semper et ubique grätias ägere, Dómine, sancte Pater, omnipotens ætérne Deus: qui invisibili poténtia, sacramentórum tuórum mirábiliter operáris effectum: et licet nos tantis mystériis exsequéndis simus indigni: tu tamen grätiae tuæ dona non déserens, étiam ad nostras preces aures tuæ pietátis inclinas. Deus, cujus Spiritus super aquas inter ipsa munda primórdia ferebátur: ut jam tunc virtútem sanctificatiónis, aquárum natúra conciperet. Deus, qui nocéntis mundi crimina per aquas ábluens, regeneratiónis spéciem in ipsa dilúvii effusióne signásti: ut, unius ejusdémque eleménti mystério, et finis esset vítiis, et orígo virtútibus. Réspice, Dómine, in fáciem Ecclésiæ tuæ, et multiplica in ea regeneratiónes tuas, qui grätiae tuæ affluéntis ímpetu lætíficas civitátem tuam: fontémque baptismatis áperis toto orbe terrárum géntibus innovándis: ut, tuæ majestátis império, sumat Unigéniti tui grátiam de Spiritu Sancto.

Qui hanc aquam, regenerándis homínibus præparátam, arcána sui núminis admixtióne fecúndet: ut, sanctificatióne concépta, ab immaculáto divíni fontis útero, in novam renáta creatúram, progénies cæléstis emérat: et quos aut sexus in córpore, aut ætas discérnit in témpore, omnes in unam páriat grátia mater infántiam. Procul ergo inc, jubénite te, Dómine, omnis spiritus immúndus abscédat: procul tota nequítia diabólicæ fraudis absistat. It is truly meet and just, right and availing unto salvation, to give Thee thanks always and in all places, O holy Lord, almighty Father, everlasting God, Who by Thine ineffable power dost wonderfully produce the effect of Thy Sacraments: and though we are unworthy to perform such great Mysteries: yet, as Thou dost not abandon the gifts of Thy grace, so Thou inclinest the ears of Thy goodness, even to our prayers. O God, Whose Spirit in the very beginning of the world moved over the waters, that even then the nature of water might receive the virtue of sanctification. O God, Who by water didst wash away the crimes of the guilty world, and by the pouring out of the deluge didst give a figure of regeneration, that one and the same element might in a mystery be the end of vice and the beginning of virtue. Look, O Lord, on the face of Thy Church, and multiply in her Thy regenerations, who by the streams of Thine abundant grace fillest Thy city with joy, and openest the font of Baptism all over the world for the renewal of the Gentiles: that by the command of Thy Majesty she may receive the grace of Thine only Son from the Holy Ghost.

May He by a secret mixture of His divine virtue render this water fruitful for the regeneration of men, to the end that a heavenly offspring, conceived by sanctification, may emerge from the immaculate womb of this divine font, reborn a new creature: and may all, however distinguished either by sex in body, or by age in time, be brought forth to the same infancy by grace, their mother. Therefore may all unclean spirits, by Thy command, O Lord, depart far from hence: may the whole malice of diabolical deceit be entirely banished: may no power of the enemy prevail here: let him not fly about to lay his snares; may he not creep in by stealth: may he not corrupt with his poison.

May this holy and innocent creature be free from all the assaults of the enemy, and purified by the destruction of all his wickedness. May it be a living fountain, a regenerating water, a purifying stream: that all those that are to be washed in this saving bath may obtain, by the operation of the Holy Ghost, the grace of a perfect cleansing.

Therefore, I bless thee, O creature of water, by the living † God, by the true † God, by the holy † God: by that God Who in the beginning, separated thee by His Word from the dry land, Whose Spirit moved over thee.

Who made thee flow from the fountain of paradise and commanded thee to water the whole earth with thy four

FOURTH PROPHECY Deuteronomy 31. 22-30

In diébus illis: Scripsit ergo Móyses cánticum et dócuit filios Israél. Præcepitque Dóminus Jósue filio Nun et ait: Confortáre, et esto robústus: tu enim introduces filios Israél in terram, quam pollicitus sum, et ego ero tecum. Postquam ergo scripsit Móyses verba legis hujus in volúmine, atque complévit: præcépit Levitis, qui portábant arcam fæderis Dómini dicens: Tóllite librum istum, et pónite eum in látere arcæ fæderis Dómini Dei vestri: ut sit ibi contra te in testimónium. Ego enim scio contentiónem tuam, et cervicem tuam duríssimam. Adhuc vivénite me, et ingrediénite vobiscum, semper contentióse egístis contra Dóminum: quanto magis cum mórtuus fúero? Congregáte ad me omnes majóres natu per tribus vestras, atque doctóres, et loquar audiéntibus eis sermónes istos, et invocábo contra eos cælum et terram. Novi enim quod post mortem meam inique agétis, et declinábitis cito de via, quam præcépi vobis: et occúrrerit vobis mala in extrémó témpore, quando fecéritis malum in conspéctu Dómini, ut irritétis eum per ópera manuum vestrárum. Locútus est ergo Móyses, audiénite univérso cœtu Israél, verba cárminis hujus, et ad finem usque complévit:

CANTICLE Deuteronomy 32. 1-4

Atténde, cælum, et loquar: et áudiat terra verba ex ore meo. ℥. Expectétur sicut plúvia elóquium meum: et descéndant sicut ros verba mea. ℥. Sicut imber super gramen, et sicut nix super fænum: quia nomen Dómini invocábo. ℥. Date magnítudinem Deo nostro: Deus, vera ópera ejus, et omnes viæ ejus judícia. ℥. Deus fidélis, in quo non est iniquitas: justus et sanctus Dóminus.

Let us kneel.

Arise.

O God, Who by the voice of the holy prophets hast declared to all the children of Thy Church that through the whole extent of Thine empire Thou art the Sower of good seed, and the Cultivator of chosen branches: grant to Thy people who are called by Thee, by the name of vines and harvest field, that they may root out all thorns and briars, and produce good fruit in abundance. Through our Lord.

℞. Amen.

In those days: Moses therefore wrote the canticle, and taught it to the children of Israel. And the Lord commanded Josue the son of Nun, and said: Take courage, and be valiant: for thou shalt bring the children of Israel into the land which I have promised, and I will be with thee. Therefore after Moses wrote the words of this law in a volume, and finished it: he commanded the Levites, who carried the ark of the covenant of the Lord, saying: Take this book, and put it in the side of the ark of the covenant of the Lord your God: that it may be there for a testimony against thee. For I know thy obstinacy and thy most stiff neck. While I am yet living, and going in with you, you have always been rebellious against the Lord: how much more when I shall be dead? Gather unto me all the ancients of your tribes, and your doctors, and I will speak these words in their hearing, and will call heaven and earth to witness against them. For I know that after my death, you will do wickedly and will quickly turn aside from the way that I have commanded you: and evils shall come upon you in the latter times, when you shall do evil in the sight of the Lord, to provoke Him by the works of your hands. Moses therefore spoke in the hearing of the whole assembly of Israel the words of this canticle, and finished it even to the end:

Attend, O heaven, and I will speak: and let the earth hear the words that come out of my mouth. ℥. Let my speech be expected like the rain: and let my words fall like the dew. ℥. Like the shower upon the grass, and like the snow upon the dry herb, because I will invoke the name of the Lord. ℥. Confess the greatness of our Lord: the works of God are perfect, and all His ways are justice. ℥. God is faithful, in Whom there is no iniquity: the Lord is just and holy.

O God, the exaltation of the humble, and the strength of the righteous, Who, by Thy holy servant Moses, wast pleased so to instruct Thy people by the singing of Thy sacred canticle, that the renewal of the law should be also our guidance: show forth Thy power to all the multitude of Gentiles justified by Thee, and by mitigating Thy terror grant them joy: that, all sins being blotted out by Thy remission, the threatened vengeance may give way to salvation. THE BLESSING OF THE BAPTISMAL WATER

This ceremony emphasizes the connection between Baptism and our Lord's Resurrection.

In Baptism, we die to our sins and rise to a new life of grace with Christ.

The Paschal Candle is dipped into the water, as a sign that the Sacrament of Baptism derives its power from Christ.
