Detroit Catholic Cable Network to Carry EF Mass

The following announcement was posted on Facebook on Tuesday, July 16 by the Archdiocese of Detroit's Changing Lives Together. The Archdiocesan cable channel will be rebroadcasting the Extraordinary Form Mass which has been hosted at www.livemass.net for several years. It originates from the Fraternity of St. Peter's small but ornate Christ the King Church in Sarasota. Thanks to the Archdiocese for taking this step to expose the Tridentine Mass to a wider audience.

"The Catholic Television Network of Detroit (CTND) has added the Tridentine Mass as a regular part of its Sunday programming.

Celebrated in the Diocese of Venice (Sarasota, Florida), the Tridentine Mass airs each Sunday at 3:30 pm. This traditional Latin-language liturgy joins the English-language Masses broadcast on CTND each Sunday at 10 am, 2:30 pm and 5:30 pm. CTND thanks everyone who advocated for a Tridentine Mass on the broadcast schedule."

The Extraordinary Form at World Youth Day

The international young adults group Juventútem had its origins at World Youth Day in 2005. Not surprisingly, it plans a spectrum of events at the 2013 World Youth Day in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil this week, July 23-26. Most activities will be conducted at the historic Church of Our Lady of Carmel (pictured) in conjunction with the Apostolic Administration of St. John Vianney of Campos, Brazil, the world's only quasi-diocese which serves only those Catholics attached to the Traditional Latin Mass. Its Ordinary, Bishop Fernando Rifan, will be the celebrant of a Pontifical Mass, plus there will be one or two sung Masses every day.
