Oakland County Latin Mass Association Weekly Sunday Tridentine Mass to Begin on May 4 at the Chapel of the Academy of the Sacred Heart

A major new Tridentine Mass site will debut in metro Detroit on Sunday, May 4: The Oakland County Latin Mass Association will commence its long-anticipated weekly Sunday Mass at 9:45 AM at the Chapel of the Academy of the Sacred Heart in Bloomfield Hills, Michigan. Sr. Bridget Bearss, RCSJ, Head of School at the Academy, extends a warm welcome to all interested in worshipping at this, the first Extraordinary Form site in Oakland County to be established after the reforms of Vatican II.

Part of a sumptuous private school campus, the Academy Chapel is located at 1250 Kensington Road, one half-mile south of Long Lake Rd., one half-mile east of Woodward Ave., and one mile south of the Opdyke Road ramp off the Square Lake Road exit from I-75. The chapel has a High Altar, Communion Rail, pipe organ, and all of the key requirements for a traditionally-celebrated Mass.

Archbishop Vigneron has appointed Msgr. Ronald Browne as Chaplain of the Oakland County Latin Mass Association, signifying the support of the Archdiocese of Detroit. High Mass (Missa Cantata) will be offered every Sunday, and Confessions will be offered before Mass.

A reception will be held after the first Mass on May 4. We hope to hold regular receptions to help build fellowship in the community.

Volunteers are needed: Are you interested in joining the choir? Serving at the altar? Being an usher or counting the collection? Helping with receptions? Please e-mail the address at the bottom of this page, or call (248) 250-2740 for more information.
