Los Angeles Sacred Music Symposium 2017

For the second year in a row, the Los Angeles apostolate of the Fraternity of St. Peter will host a Sacred Music Symposium, to be held June 26-30 at St. Therese Church in Alhambra, California.

Organized by FSSP-LA music director and chief of the Corpus Christi Watershed music resource web site Jeff Ostrowski, this promises to be a smaller, more intimate opportunity to learn or sharpen one's skills with Gregorian Chant and sacred polyphony than larger conferences such as the CMAA's annual Sacred Music Colloquium. Further information is available at: www.ccwatershed.org/symposium.

Los Angeles, CA • 26 June - 30 June • To be held at St. Therese in Alhambra

The Priestly Fraternity of St. Peter presents:

Sacred Music Symposium 2017

Topics:

- Forming a children's choir;
- Utilizing Catholic hymnody;
- Training in polyphony;

- Repertoire ideas for choirs;
- The indispensable "key" to working with amateur choirs;
- Much more!

UNFORGETTABLE highlights of this conference will include singing for the First Solemn Mass of a newly-ordained FSSP priest in addition to a Spanish polyphonic Mass in the historic SAN FERNANDO MISSION CHURCH, with its spectacular museum.

PARTICIPANTS will learn how to create professional multitrack recordings, exactly like the CCWATERSHED training videos, by means of "hands on" training in a non-threatening environment.
