Wisdom from an Old Holy Card

Recently retired U.S. Army Latin Mass organizer Sergeant Major John Proctor posted this photo of an old holy card he discovered. Such timeless wisdom, so concisely expressed.

2019 Extraordinary Form Calendars

Once again this year we are selling Wall Calendars for the Extraordinary Form from the Priestly Fraternity of St. Peter. The schedule of Feasts for the Traditional Latin Mass differs from that of the Ordinary Form, so the usual calendars parishes distribute are of little use to those who attend the Tridentine Mass.

Sign up sheets are available at the missal tables at the Oakland County Latin Mass Association/Academy of the Sacred Heart Chapel, St. Benedict Tridentine Community at St. Alphonsus and Holy Name of Mary Churches, and at Old St. Mary's Church. The 2019 Calendar of Indulgences

A new entrant into the field of Liturgical Wall Calendar offerings has come to our attention:

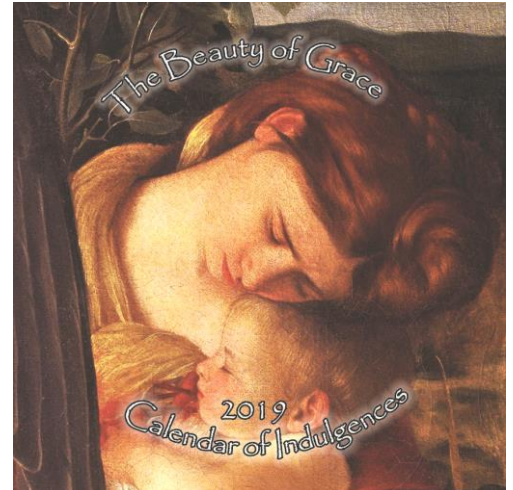

Bridegroom Press is offering a Calendar of Indulgences. It is a 12 month calendar which lists days on which Partial and Plenary Indulgences may be gained by way of prayers or acts performed on those days. The advertisement makes no mention of whether the Feast Days are listed according to the Ordinary or Extraordinary Forms, so one must assume it is a Novus Ordo calendar. Nevertheless there are only a handful of Plenary Indulgenced Feast Days whose dates differ in the EF, so it is still an interesting resource.

Note that a list of Feast Days enriched with Plenary Indulgences was provided in the July 1, 2018 edition of this column, available at the web address at the bottom of this page.

The Calendar of Indulgences sells for $16.95 and is available at: www.bestcatholicposters.com.
