May 24, 2020 – Sunday After the Ascension

Welcome Back

The Archdiocese of Detroit permitted public Masses to resume on May 19, with restrictions of 25% maximum capacity in a church, mandatory wearing of masks by the congregation, discouragement of congregational singing, and mandatory social distancing.

The Diocese of Lansing permitted public weekday Masses on May 18. At press time there is no word when public Masses will resume in the Diocese of London, Ontario.

Orchard Lake Shrine Chapel Temporarily Hosts OCLMA

The Oakland County Latin Mass Association weekly Sunday High Mass resumed today at a temporary location and time: 9:00 AM at the Shrine Chapel at Orchard Lake Seminary (pictured). Orchard Lake Schools Chancellor Fr. Miroslav Krol kindly welcomed the OCLMA to use their chapel until the Academy of the Sacred Heart Chapel reopens, tentatively scheduled for Sunday, June 21. Please monitor the OCLMA Facebook page (www.facebook.com/OCLMA) or Twitter account (www.twitter.com/oclatinmass) each week, as it is possible that the start time of Mass may change in future weeks.

St. Mary Queen of Creation Debuts TLMs

Longtime metro Detroit Latin Mass goers know Fr. Charles White. Right after ordination he became one of the regular celebrants at St. Josaphat. These days he is a familiar face at several TLM sites around town. Today, May 24, Fr. White debuts a weekly Sunday 1:00 PM Holy Mass in the Extraordinary Form at his parish, St. Mary Queen of Creation in New Baltimore, Michigan. Fr. White is looking for altar servers; those who can help are invited to contact him.

First Traditional Mass of Fr. David Pellican

Soon-to-be Fr. David Pellican has long had an interest in the Tridentine Mass. He grew up in Latin Mass-centric Assumption Grotto Parish. Over the past year he has served as deacon at several Solemn High Masses around the region. He will be ordained to the sacred priesthood on Saturday, June 6 and will celebrate his first Traditional Mass the following day, Sunday, June 7 at 5:00 PM at St. Mary of Redford Church. Homilist for the Mass will be Deacon Ryan Eggenberger, who was just ordained to the diaconate on Friday, May 22.

Pentecost Octave Masses at St. Mary of Redford

More news from the ever-evolving TLM scene at St. Mary of Redford:

The weekly Sunday High Mass will now be held at 5:00 PM.

Daily Solemn High Masses are planned for the Octave of Pentecost: Sunday, May 31 and (the above mentioned) Sunday, June 7 at 5:00 PM. Monday, June 1 – Saturday, June 5 at 7:00 PM.

Special Masses Will Be Rescheduled

Special Masses that had to be cancelled because of the lockdown will be rescheduled. TLMs at St. Michael, Leamington, Ontario; Our Lady Queen of Apostles, Hamtramck; and the (now postponed) May 29 St. Aloysius in Detroit will all be rescheduled once things settle down.

Arctic Circle Monastery Embraces the TLM

Catholic World Report published the fascinating story of Marias Lamm (Mary's Lambs) a new, small community of nuns in a remote village north of the Arctic Circle, Lannavaara, in Swedish Lapland. The nearest parish church is a four hour drive south. Based in a former school purchased by a donor for them, their Sankt Josefs Kloster (Monastery of St. Joseph) became a popular retreat site for Swedish priests, and in 2016 the sisters embraced the Traditional Mass. A Benedictine monk plans to take up residence with the sisters this month and will offer the Sacraments in the traditional form for them.
