Holy Family Church Debuts Weekday Low Masses

As anticipated in the July 12, 2020 edition of this column, Holy Family Church in downtown Detroit under new pastor Fr. Paul Ward will debut weekday Low Masses in the Extraordinary Form on Monday, August 3rd. Masses will be offered on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays at 12:00 Noon, with Confessions available at 11:30 AM. Weekday parking at Holy Family will be on the horseshoe drive which surrounds the church.

Requiem Mass for Fr. Epperley

The next First Friday Mass at Old St. Mary's on August 7 at 7:00 PM will be a High Requiem Mass (technically a "Requiem After the Announcement of a Death", using the Funeral Mass Propers), for the repose of the soul of recently deceased pastor Fr. Wayne Epperley, C.S.Sp. The choir will sing Missa O Quam Gloriosum by Tomás Luis de Victoria, Dies Irae by Louis Homet, and Lux Aeterna by Maurice Duruflé. The celebrant will be Msgr. Ronald Browne, Judicial Vicar of the Archdiocese of Detroit.

Webinar for Latin Mass-Curious Priests & Deacons

Do you know a priest or deacon who is curious to learn more about the Traditional Latin Mass? San Francisco's Benedict XVI Institute for Sacred Music and Divine Worship is offering a webinar on Tuesday, August 4 at 8:30 PM Eastern time.

San Francisco Archbishop Salvatore Cordileone will introduce this writer, who will serve as moderator of the webinar. Fr. Cy Whitaker, SJ, Spiritual Director of Detroit's Sacred Heart Major Seminary; Fr. Marc Valadao, SJ, Instructor in Sacred Scripture, St. Patrick Seminary, Menlo Park, California; and Fr. Jeremiah Payne, Administrator of St. Joseph Parish in Palm Bay, Florida will discuss their experiences of learning and offering Holy Mass in the Extraordinary Form.

More information and (free) registration is available at: <https://mailchi.mp/b8b924a7e3c8/ordinary-priests-and-the-extraordinary-mass-a-special-clergy-only-invite>.

Please note that this webinar is only for clergy. Another webinar geared towards laypeople is planned to be offered in the near future.

Lego® Priests

Widely circulated on social media a few weeks ago was an impressive set of instructional dioramas on the Traditional Mass made out of Lego characters. A group of altar servers had put their time and talent into this creative tutorial enterprise during the shutdown. The full set of pictures may be found at:

A local family took a first step at something similar. We present to you...Lego Fr. Peter Hrytsyk, wearing his gold vestments. If you're wondering why he looks so angry, well...someone just stepped on him.
