January 3, 2021 – Most Holy Name of Jesus

2020 Year in Review

As is our annual custom, we present a list of some of the most significant local Latin Mass developments from the past year:

Orchard Lake Seminary Welcomes OCLMA: From a panic situation to a major upgrade: When the Academy of the Sacred Heart informed the Oakland County Latin Mass Association that the school and its chapel would be closed indefinitely, the search was on for a new home. Originally expected only to be a temporary location, Orchard Lake Seminary's Shrine Chapel of St. John Paul II welcomed the OCLMA and rolled out the red carpet, inviting a long-term residency. With the OCLMA's assistance, the seminary now offers optional Low Masses for its seminarians almost daily and a monthly mandatory TLM for all seminarians.

More Churches Offer Tridentine Masses: St. Joseph Chapel in Pontiac, St. Priscilla in Livonia, St. Aloysius in Detroit, and Holy Family in Saginaw opened their doors for the first time this year for celebrations of the Traditional Mass.

Debut of Local Livestreamed Masses: The St. Benedict Tridentine Community has begun to livestream its Traditional Latin Masses, a local entry into the global phenomenon that started because of Covid.

Thanks to Our Priest Celebrants

Please include in your prayers those priests who comprise the core team that offers Holy Masses in the Extraordinary Form for us at various sites. Without them, we have no Mass: Bishop Donald Hanchon, Fr. Lee Acervo, Fr. Ryan Adams, Fr. David Bechill, Fr. Mark Borkowski, Msgr. Ronald Browne, Fr. Athanasius Fornwalt, Fr. Peter Hrytsyk, Fr. Lukasz Iwanczuk, Fr. David Johnston, Fr. Louis Madey, Fr. John McKenzie, Fr. David Pellican, Fr. Derik Peterman, Fr. Jerry Pilus, Fr. Michael Suhy, Fr. Joe Tuskiewicz, Fr. Jake Van Assche, Fr. Paul Ward, and Fr. Cy Whitaker.

Thanks to Our Volunteers

The thriving Latin Mass scene we enjoy is in large part due to the consistent effort put forth by a dedicated team of volunteers. Those listed in bold deserve special commendation for volunteering at multiple sites across metro Detroit and Windsor.
