Special Plenary Indulgence for Prayer to St. Joseph

During this special Year of St. Joseph, which runs through December 8, 2021, Holy Mother Church has enriched the praying of the traditional Prayer to St. Joseph with a Plenary Indulgence, under the usual conditions of Confession within 20 days, reception of Holy Communion and prayer for the Holy Father's intentions once per Plenary Indulgence sought, and freedom from attachment to sin. The Decree from the Apostolic Penitentiary recommends praying this prayer "especially on the occasions of 19 March and 1 May, on the Feast of the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph, on the Sunday of Saint Joseph (according to the Byzantine tradition), on the 19th of every month and every Wednesday, the day dedicated to the Saint's memory". The key word here is especially, which indicates that the Plenary Indulgence may, in fact, be gained on any day. Also note that outside of the Year of St. Joseph, this prayer ordinarily is enriched with a Partial Indulgence per the Manual of Indulgences.

Ad te, beáte Joseph, in tribulatióne nostra confúgimus, atque, imploráto Sponsæ tuæ sanctissimæ auxilio, patrocínium quoque tuum fidénter expóscimus. Per eam, quæsumus, quæ te cum immaculáta Vírgine Dei Genetríce conjúnxit, caritátem, perque patérnum, quo Púerum Jesum ampléxus es, amórem, súpplices deprecámur, ut ad hereditátem, quam Jesus Christus acquisívit Sánguine suo, benígnus respicias, ac necessitatibus nostris tua virtúte et ope succúrras. Tuére, o Custos providentíssime divínæ Familiæ, Jesu Christi sóbolem eléctam; próhibe a nobis, amantíssime Pater, omnem errórum ac corruptelárum luem; propítius nobis, sospitator noster fortíssime, in hoc cum potestáte tenebrárum certámine e cælo adésto; et sicut olim Púerum Jesum e summo eripuísti vitæ discrimine, ita nunc Ecclésiám sanctam Dei ab hostílibus insidiis atque ab omni adversitaté defénde: nosque síngulos perpétuo tege patrocínio, ut ad tui exémpar et ope tua suffúlti, sancte vivere, pie émori, sempiternámque in cælis beatitúdinem ássequi possimus. Amen.

To you, O blessed Joseph, do we come in our tribulation, and having implored the help of your most holy spouse, we confidently invoke your patronage also. Through that charity which bound you to the Immaculate Virgin Mother of God and through the paternal love with which you embraced the Child Jesus, we humbly beg you graciously to regard the inheritance which Jesus Christ has purchased by his Blood, and with your power and strength to aid us in our necessities. O most watchful Guardian of the Holy Family, defend the chosen children of Jesus Christ; O most loving father, ward off from us every contagion of error and corrupting influence; O our most mighty protector, be kind to us and from heaven assist us in our struggle with the power of darkness. As once you rescued the Child Jesus from deadly peril, so now protect God's Holy Church from the snares of the enemy and from all adversity; shield, too, each one of us by your constant protection, so that, supported by your example and your aid, we may be able to live piously, to die in holiness, and to obtain eternal happiness in heaven. Amen.

Traditional Mass Returns to St. Josaphat on February 21

The Tridentine Mass returns to Detroit's St. Josaphat Church: On Sunday, February 21 at 12:00 Noon, a weekly High Mass will commence, replacing the Novus Ordo Mass that has been held at that hour.

St. Josaphat was the first post-Vatican II Tridentine Mass site in the Archdiocese of Detroit, debuting on October 3, 2004. In its heyday in the late 2000s it attracted around 200 faithful. Changes in parish leadership resulted in some unfortunate decisions being made that ultimately led to the demise of their weekly Sunday and Monday TLMs, but current Mother of Divine Mercy Parish leaders now intend for a restarted Traditional Mass effort to revitalize the historic church. ## Coffeyville, Kansas Priest Training Report

Congratulations to Fr. Dan Lorimer, Pastor of Holy Name Parish in Coffeyville, Kansas, who celebrated his first Traditional Latin Mass on Tuesday, January 26, 2021, after training from Extraordinary Faith. Fr. Lorimer hopes to assist his fellow priests in offering the Extraordinary Form across the Diocese of Wichita, as well as to offer it in his own parish. To symbolize this new beginning, Fr.
