

Tridentine Community News

March 21, 2021 – Passion Sunday

Next Traditional Mass at St. Anne de Detroit on April 9

The Basilica of Ste. Anne de Detroit will offer its next Tridentine High Mass on Easter Friday, April 9 at 7:30 PM. The celebrant will be Associate Pastor Fr. Ryan Adams, and music will be provided by Ste. Anne music director Joe Moss and his choir. Altar servers from the Oakland County Latin Mass Association will assist. Both of the Archdiocese of Detroit's basilicas – the other being the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Little Flower in Royal Oak – have decided to add occasional Traditional Masses to their offerings, which is certainly in keeping with the mission of all basilicas to offer exemplary liturgy.

Fourth Saginaw Priest's First Public TLM

Congratulations to Fr. Nathan Harburg, Pastor of Good Shepherd Parish in Ubyly, Michigan, who celebrated his first public Extraordinary Form Mass on Sunday, March 7 at Holy Family Church in Saginaw. Fr. Nate is the fourth of four priests trained by Extraordinary Faith who comprise the celebrant team for the new Latin Mass Community at Holy Family. The others are Fr. Christopher Coman, Fr. Marcel Portelli (to the left and right of Fr. Nate, respectively, in this photo), and Fr. Thai Hung (not pictured). Holy Family's Traditional Mass has filled the church to allowable capacity, which has moved authorities to increase its frequency to weekly, every Sunday at 3:00 PM, as of the First Sunday in Lent.

Fun fact: Fr. Nate is the great-grandson of Yip Harburg, the lyricist of the music for the movie The Wizard of Oz.

Detroit Priests to Feature on San Francisco TLM Webinar

Following upon the success of last August's webinar, San Francisco's Benedict XVI Institute for Sacred Music and Divine Worship is hosting another webinar for priests and seminarians curious about learning to celebrate the Traditional Latin Mass, this Thursday, March 25 at 9:00 PM Eastern time. The guests will be Msgr. Ronald Browne, Judicial Vicar of the Archdiocese of Detroit and Chaplain of the Oakland County Latin Mass Association; and Fr. Joe Tuskiewicz, former advertising executive at Campbell Ewald and McCann Erickson, and current Pastor of St. Priscilla Parish, Livonia. This writer will once again serve as moderator.

The priests will discuss the paths that led to their interest in the Traditional Mass, and how learning to celebrate it has affected their priesthood and their understanding of sacred liturgy in general.

Please invite priests and seminarians to register for the free event at:

<https://benedictinstitute.us17.list-manage.com/track/click?u=c92bed8146de89d140402c7ab&id=62475ca08c&e=05f4394402>

OCLMA to Host Triduum Liturgies

The Oakland County Latin Mass Association will once again offer the full Triduum according to the Extraordinary Form at Orchard Lake's Archdiocesan Shrine Chapel of St. John Paul II:

Holy Thursday, April 1 at 7:00 PM: Celebrant: Fr. Lukasz Iwanczuk

Good Friday, April 2 at 1:30 PM: Celebrant: Fr. Lukasz Iwanczuk

Easter Vigil, Saturday, April 3 at 8:00 PM: Celebrant: Fr. Clint McDonell

There will be no Latin Mass at Orchard Lake on Easter Sunday. Regular Sunday Masses will resume on April 11 at 9:00 AM.

Tridentine Masses This Coming Week

Sun. 03/28 8:15 AM: High Mass at OCLMA/Orchard Lake (Palm Sunday) – Celebrant: Msgr. Ronald Browne. Note that Mass starts 45 minutes earlier than usual to accommodate the longer Palm Sunday liturgy.