Fr. Eduard Perrone to Celebrate Masses at the Oakland County Latin Mass Association and Old St. Mary's

A familiar face is returning to the altar in the Archdiocese of Detroit: Fr. Eduard Perrone will celebrate the Sunday 9:00 AM High Mass for the Oakland County Latin Mass Association at the Orchard Lake Shrine Chapel on May 1, 8, and 22. He will also celebrate the 10:00 AM High Mass at Old St. Mary's on May 15. We hope you can join us and welcome Fr. Perrone back to the traditional liturgy.

Fun fact: Prior to becoming a priest, Fr. Perrone was the music director at Old St. Mary's and even released a now highly collectible LP recording of the Novus Ordo Latin Mass choir there.

such architectural splendor all in one place. [Photos of the naves of St. Hedwig and St. Florian above].

Detroit Catholic Podcast Interviews Wassim Sarweh

Those attending the March 20, 2022 Tridentine Mass at Old St. Mary's may have noticed a sound crew recording the choir that day. The Detroit Catholic was there to capture some background music to be used in an interview of Oakland County Latin Mass Association/Orchard Lake, Old St. Mary's, and Holy Family Saginaw Tridentine Mass music director Wassim Sarweh.

The podcast, entitled "Does the Music Matter?" and part of their Detroit Stories series, was posted on the Detroit Catholic web site this week:

Full disclosure: The podcast emphasizes the diversity of musical styles available at Archdiocese of Detroit Masses and therefore includes some decidedly untraditional music alongside our beloved Gregorian Chant.

Tridentine Masses This Coming Week
