Non-Parish Churches & Chapels in Metro Detroit Part 4 of 4

The last installment in our series covering lesser-known sites that have or could host the Traditional Latin Mass.

13. Marygrove Sacred Heart Chapel: Noted for its spectacular stained glass, the chapel at the former Marygrove College has a High Altar, Side Altars, and a Casavant pipe organ. Seating 375, the chapel is presently used on Sundays at 10:00 AM for Masses of St. Peter Claver Parish, whose own church's roof collapsed a few years ago. The Marygrove Chapel has its own web site, which includes a 360° camera tour:

14. Divine Mercy Center: The former St. Claude Church in Clinton Township was closed and purchased by the Servants of Jesus of the Divine Mercy. It currently offers a Novus Ordo Mass on Fridays at 11:00 AM. Though a modern edifice, it has offered Novus Ordo Latin Masses in the past.

15. Blue Army's Fatima Shrine: The Blue Army's privately owned Fatima Shrine in Riverview is an ultra-clean chapel where all Masses are offered ad orientem. On June 11, 2021, the Fatima Shrine offered a Tridentine High Mass.

16. The St. John Resort's Ss. Mary & Joseph Chapel:

The former St. John Seminary in Plymouth, now a hotel and conference center known as the St. John Resort, has a large chapel at the center of campus that is used for weddings and special events. On June 10, 2022, a Solemn High Tridentine wedding Mass was held there.

17. Gabriel Richard High School Chapel:

Ann Arbor's Father Gabriel Richard High School has a chapel which has hosted occasional Tridentine Masses, usually celebrated by Fr. Richard Lobert.

Do you know of additional non-parish churches and chapels within our region that would be suitable for the Traditional Mass? E-mail the address at the bottom of this page, and we'll include them in a future column.
