Fr. Peter Hrytsyk's 40th Anniversary of Ordination

For months in 2006 there was a mysterious figure in a grey cassock sitting in the back of Windsor's St. Michael Church attending the Tridentine Mass. Who was this priest who was rapt in attention as he observed the rites? When then-Windsor Latin Mass Chaplain Fr. Ulysse Lefaive retired in 2007, the Diocese of London asked us to find our own chaplain, and it became apparent that the man already sitting among us would be a logical choice. Fortunately that priest, Fr. Peter Hrytsyk, accepted the invitation. Fast forward to 2023, and many longtime TLMers in Windsor and metro Detroit have developed a great gratitude to Fr. Peter for his dedication to excellence in the celebration of the Traditional Mass, musically, rubrically, and employing exquisite vestments. For many years Fr. Peter was also a regular substitute celebrant on the Detroit side of the river, among other things having inaugurated the Christmas Midnight Tridentine Masses at St. Joseph Shrine in Detroit in 2007 and the Triduum at St. Josaphat Church in 2008.

Fr. Peter is a biritual priest, having been ordained for the Ukrainian Catholic Church originally. In addition to serving as the Chaplain of the St. Benedict Tridentine Community, he is also Assistant Pastor of Ss. Vladimir & Olga Ukrainian Catholic Church in Windsor. Therefore, on this, his 40th anniversary of ordination to the priesthood, there will be two receptions for Fr. Peter: The first will be on Sunday, April 30 at Ss. Vladimir & Olga Church following the 10:00 AM Divine Liturgy (please RSVP to Fr. Tom Hrywna at pastor.stsvowindsor@gmail.com by Sunday, April 16 if you plan to attend).

The second reception will be on Sunday, May 21 at St. Alphonsus Church in Windsor, following the 2:00 PM Tridentine High Mass. We hope you can attend one or both and help us celebrate this holy priest who has done so much for our local Latin Mass scene.

Trad Topics on The Catholic Current Radio Show

Jesuit Fr. Robert McTeigue hosts The Catholic Current program, broadcast over the Station of the Cross radio network, whose member stations are mostly in the northeastern United States. Over the years he has covered many subjects related to the Traditional Latin Mass, including interviewing this writer in early 2020. Fr. McTeigue himself celebrates the TLM at St. Edward Church in Newark, California, in the Diocese of Oakland.

In recent weeks Fr. McTeigue has interviewed several prominent figures in the Latin Mass world, including Dom Alcuin Reid, Fr. Gerald Murray, Fr. Donald Kloster, Dr. Joseph Shaw, and Dr. Peter Kwasniewski. It's refreshing to see such a mainstream Catholic program tackle subjects near and dear to our hearts. Those episodes can be listened to on-line, starting at: <https://directory.libsyn.com/episode/index/id/26066421>

Liturgical Calendar Poster

A new poster is available that explains the liturgical calendar of the Traditional Latin Mass in impressive detail. For more information, visit:

Atlanta Airport Chapel Eucharist Reservation

Living in Detroit, it's hard to avoid flying Delta Air Lines. And flying Delta, sooner or later you'll end up connecting flights in the Atlanta airport. Now there's an extra incentive to explore the Atlanta airport during a layover:

The May 3, 2015 and August 23, 2020 editions of this column covered the phenomenon of Catholic chapels in airports. Recently the National Catholic Register published a story about the chapel in the Atlanta airport in Concourse F receiving an upgrade: The Blessed Sacrament is now reserved there for visits, and the chapel is now open 24/7. (Novus Ordo) Mass is offered there at 4:30 PM each Saturday and Sunday. Read the whole story at:
