September 24, 2023 – Seventeenth Sunday After Pentecost

Tridentine Mass Pilgrimages

After experiencing slow but steady growth over the past decade or two, the last year has seen an apparent explosion in the popularity of pilgrimages involving the Tridentine Mass.

Attracting the most attention over the past few years has been the multi-day Pentecost Pilgrimage from Notre Dame de Paris to Notre Dame de Chartres in France. Approximately 16,000 pilgrims took part in 2023, a 33% increase over 2022. So many Americans have joined the pilgrimage in recent years that The Remnant newspaper has set up a web site to facilitate travel to this event: <https://www.chartrespilgrimageusa.com/>.

The annual Pópulus Summórum Pontificum pilgrimage in Rome continues each October on the Feast of Christ the King. This year's event concludes with a Mass on Sunday, October 29, celebrated by Msgr. Marco Agostini of the Secretary of State, Master of Ceremonies to the Pope. Details are at: <https://www.summorum-pontificum.org/> [Photo by Riposte Catholique]

On this side of the Atlantic, the 28th annual Pilgrimage for Restoration will take place Friday – Sunday, September 29 – October 1 from the Lake of the Blessed Sacrament at Lake George Village, New York to the Shrine of Our Lady's Martyrs of New France at Auriesville. Locally, the Ann Arbor Tridentine Community is holding a 12 mile walking pilgrimage from St. Thomas the Apostle, Ann Arbor to St. Andrew, Saline on Saturday, October 7. The event begins with a 7:00 AM Tridentine Mass at St. Thomas. Ann Arbor TLM organizer Joe Lipa e-mailed out the following supporting piece:

Why Go on Pilgrimage? 9 Reasons

Traditional Catholic pilgrimages are becoming all the rage throughout the world, and Ann Arbor is jumping on the bandwagon! Here are nine reasons to sign up for our 12-mile Walking Marian Pilgrimage on Saturday, Oct. 7.

1. Witness to the public dimension of our Catholic Faith.
2. Show your devotion to Our Lady of the Rosary.
3. Undertake prayer and penance for the Church and the world, especially during these troubled times.

4. Embrace a physical and spiritual challenge, reflecting the fact that man is called to serve God with both body and soul.
5. Bond with like-minded Catholics: ample time for conversation and fellowship along the way.
6. Be nourished (spiritually) by Mass, Terce, and Vespers in the traditional form.
7. Be nourished (physically) by a closing pizza party at St. Andrew prior to returning (by bus) to St. Thomas.
8. Get exercise: walk between three local churches on a safe, sidewalked route.
9. Return to normal life invigorated, filled with joy and, undoubtedly, having received many graces!

Most of us have heard of the Seven Sorrows of the Blessed Mother, but can you name them? The Facebook page Catholic Traditional Beauty posted the above infographic to help us understand.

Sung Propers Survey

A board member of the Church Music Association of America has asked if we know of any Novus Ordo parishes in any diocese that sing all of the Propers of the Mass (Entrance Antiphon, Gradual, Alleluia, and Communion Antiphon) and some polyphony. Please e-mail us at the address at the bottom of this page if you are aware of any. It doesn't have to be done at every Mass at the parish.

Flint Mass Time Change

Next Sunday, October 1, the time of the Sunday Mass at St. Matthew Church in Flint will change from 3:00 PM to 1:00 PM.
