Tridentine Masses to Continue at Old St. Mary's

A last minute reprieve: Traditional Masses will continue at Old St. Mary's Church in Detroit after the parish priest changed his mind. The Masses that had been held there will no longer need to relocate to a new location in July as previously announced. High Masses on First Fridays at 7:00 PM and on Third Sundays at 10:00 AM will continue without cessation. Thanks to all of those who played a part in making the case that this is an ideal edifice for this liturgy, in a great location.

Conservative Novus Ordo Weekday Masses

Even though metro Detroit and Windsor have arguably the largest number of weekday Tridentine Masses available of any major city in the world, it's not always possible to get to one of them every weekday. Fortunately, our region is also home to a large number of conservative Novus Ordo Masses. By no means a complete listing, a few noteworthy ones bear mention, along with some comments:

St. Joseph Chapel, Pontiac (12:00 Noon Wednesday & Saturday; 7:30 PM Third Monday; 7:00 PM Third Thursday) – Kneeling for Holy Communion. <https://terrasanctaministries.net/>

Sweetest Heart of Mary, Detroit (12:00 Noon Thursday & Friday). <https://www.motherofdivinemeracy.org/>

First OCLMA Picnic

Next Sunday, June 23rd, the Oakland County Latin Mass Association will host its first picnic, from 12:00 Noon to 4:00 PM at Indian Springs Metro Park, Shelter B at the North End. Everyone is invited. Tell the park gate attendant that you are attending the "OCLMA Picnic" and they will ask one person per car to sign in. Food and beverages will be provided, but feel free to bring a dish to pass.
