Plenary Indulgences for Particular Days

Circa 2014, Fr. Tim Finigan, at the time pastor of Our Lady of the Rosary Parish in Blackfen, England, published the below chart of Plenary Indulgences that can be gained on certain days and occasions of the year. As with all Plenary Indulgences, they require Confession within 20 days, reception of Holy Communion once per Plenary Indulgence sought, prayer for the Holy Father's intentions, and freedom from attachment to sin.

Plenary Indulgences for particular days
The following is a non-exhaustive list of plenary indulgences, focussing on those which priests might promote in their parishes, and those which the faithful can easily obtain. The numbers refer to the Enchiridion Indulgentiarum (Editio Quarta) 2004 which should be consulted for the definitive description of each work.

Diocesan Shrines in Detroit and London, Ontario

One of the more interesting items on the above chart is the ability to gain a Plenary Indulgence by visiting a national or diocesan shrine once per year on a day of one's choice. That raises the question, where are the national and diocesan shrines in our region?

The Archdiocese of Detroit makes the answer to this question easy, as they have a web page which lists all of their shrines: <https://www.aod.org/shrines>

The one national shrine is the National Shrine of the Little Flower in Royal Oak: <https://shrinechurch.com/>

The diocesan shrines are:

There does not seem to be a published list of the shrine(s) in the Diocese of London, Ontario, however perhaps the best known shrine in that diocese is Our Lady of the Rosary Shrine at St. Patrick Church, Merlin: <https://olrshrine.ca/>

If you know of other shrines in the Diocese of London, kindly e-mail the address at the bottom of this page, and we will print them in a future edition of this column.

Earlier Weekly Deadline for this Column

Old St. Mary's Church has kindly offered to begin including the Tridentine Community News as a bound page in their weekly bulletin. As a result, the column must be supplied to their printer by Tuesday of each week. If you have subjects or Mass times to report, please get them to us via the e-mail address at the bottom of this page no later than Monday at 12:00 Noon, to be ensured that it will be possible to include them in that week's edition.

Tridentine Masses This Coming Week

Sun. 10/13: No Mass at OCLMA/Orchard Lake Shrine Chapel – Mass cancelled this day because the school needs the chapel. Mass resumes as usual the following Sunday, October 20 at 9:00 AM.
