The Joshua Chorale Fills the Choir Loft for the Final First Friday Tridentine Mass at Old St. Mary's

The last First Friday Tridentine Mass at Old St. Mary's Church in Detroit on June 6 was one for the record books. Consisting of approximately 35 singers, the Joshua Chorale filled the choir loft to sing Joseph Rheinberger's Mass in E Flat, and over 270 faithful filled the pews. Special thanks to Joshua Chorale director Sarah Dudek and Old St. Mary's Tridentine Mass music director Wassim Sarweh for organizing such a beautiful send-off. Hopefully regulations will change and allow the Traditional Latin Mass to return to Old St. Mary's and other parish churches in the not-too-distant future.

London Oratory Schola Tour Donation Request

As you might imagine, getting the London Oratory Schola to perform a (no charge) concert here in Detroit (at Old St. Mary's Church on Friday, July 18 at 7:30 PM) required many logistical elements to be arranged and paid for. The good news is, funds have already been raised to pay for their flight and hotel stay, and for the advertising that will soon be running on WRCJ and elsewhere.

One part of their trip still needs to be funded, however: dinner for the boys and their instructors on Thursday, June 17 and Friday, June 18. Each of the two meals will cost between $1,500 - $2,000. If you are able to help with some or all of this expense, kindly e-mail the address at the bottom of this page.

Saginaw Tridentine Mass Suspended

The Diocese of Saginaw has suspended the weekly Sunday Traditional Latin Mass at Holy Family Church, effective immediately. This Mass attracted 200 people on typical Sundays and was the only TLM in the diocese. No non-parish church site has yet been offered as a replacement. The faithful who had been attending this Mass will now find their nearest alternative option Tridentine Mass at St. Matthew Church in Flint, in the Diocese of Lansing.
