Children's Propers Handouts Debut

St. Benedict Tridentine Community parishioner Maggie Recous has begun preparing a special set of weekly Sunday Propers Handouts for children, with art, puzzles, and educational content meant to develop their understanding of the Holy Mass. These new handouts will be distributed at the back of the church along with our usual adult Propers Handouts at both St. Benedict/Holy Name of Mary Church in Windsor and at the Oakland County Latin Mass Association/Orchard Lake Shrine Chapel. Thanks to Maggie for thinking of such a creative way to add value to our local Latin Mass communities!

Second, the Chicago Midway and O'Hare airport chapels have their own web site: <http://www.airportchapels.org/> and even publish a weekly bulletin that is posted to that site. Note that though the chapels are "interfaith," clearly the emphasis is on Catholic worship.

Week of November 2 — November 8, 2025

WELCOME TO THE INTERFAITH AIRPORT CHAPELS OF CHICAGO!
The O'Hare Airport Chapel and Midway Airport Chapel are each a peaceful oasis in a busy venue. A place to bow your head in prayer while lifting up your heart and spirit! Prayer books and rugs, rosaries, and worship materials are available, as are chaplains for spiritual counsel. You are welcome to attend Mass or Worship services and to come to the chapels (open 24/7) to pray or meditate. Know that you & your families are always in our prayers. May God bless your travels.

Remembering Thomas "Tom" F. Havlicek

We extend our deepest sympathy to the family and friends of Thomas Havlicek, a volunteer at Midway Airport Chapel, who passed away peacefully September 17, 2025, with his loving family at his side. Born April 26, 1959, Tom was the loving husband of Virginia, nee Alvarez. Dear father of Andrew (Kaytee) Havlicek. Fond brother of Kenneth (Laura) Havlicek and Karen (Troy) Guthrie. Uncle to Carl, Mark and Kelly. Cherished son of Marie and the late Richard C. Havlicek. Much loved brother-in-law and uncle to many. Tom was a longtime resident of Chicago's Clearing community. He worked for the City of Chicago for many years and his current position was at Midway Airport. Tom was a hardworking, compassionate, friendly person, who had the greatest smile. He was always willing to help anyone in need. Friends and family will hold him in their hearts forever. Please pray for the repose of his soul and the consolation of his family. May he rest in peace.

Second Reading: Romans 5:5-11 or Romans 5:17-21 or Romans 6:3-9 or Romans 8:14-23 or Romans 8:31b-25,7:9 or Romans 14:7-9,10-12 or 1 Corinthians 15:20-28 or 1 Corinthians 15:51-57 or 2 Corinthians 4:14-5:1 or 2 Corinthians 5:1,6-10 or Philippians 3:20-21 or 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18 or 2 Timothy 2:8-13
Gospel Reading: Matthew 5:1-12a or Matthew 11:25-30 or Matthew 23:31-46 or Luke 7:11-17 or Luke 23:44-46,50,52-53,24:1-58 or Luke 24:13-15,28-35; John 5:24-29 or John 6:37-40 or John 6:51-59 or John 11:17-27 or John 11:32-45 or John 14:1-6

The readings for the Liturgy of the Word on the Feast of All Souls can be selected from among the above or chosen from among those given for the Masses for the Dead. This reflection is based on John 11:17-27. Jesus consoles Martha at the death of her brother, Lazarus, and declares that he is the Resurrection and the life.

Background on the Gospel Reading
On the Feast of All Souls, we pray for the souls of all those who have died. There are many choices of readings for this day, all focusing on our belief in the resurrection of the dead and Jesus' promise of eternal life. The Gospel story of the raising of Lazarus offers us many important insights about this aspect of our faith.

Jesus was good friends with Lazarus and his sisters, Martha and Mary. Lazarus had fallen ill, and Martha and Mary had sent word to Jesus. Jesus delays his journey to them, however, and when he arrives in Bethany, he finds that Lazarus is dead and has been buried for four days. The scene described at Bethany is a sad one; Lazarus and his family have many friends who have come to mourn his death. Martha goes out to meet Jesus when he arrives. She cries with him, saying that if Jesus had been there, Lazarus would not have died. Yet she remains confident that God will do whatever Jesus asks. Jesus consoles her with the promise that Lazarus would rise from the dead. Martha affirms her belief that there will be resurrection of the dead in the last days. Jesus promises her even more; he says that he himself is the Resurrection and the life for all those who believe in him. Martha professes her faith in this, acknowledging that Jesus is Christ, the Son of God.

This is the profession of faith we continue to make, and it is the promise on which we base our hope for eternal life for ourselves and for all those who have died. In his death and Resurrection, Jesus has conquered death for all those who believe in him.

We believe that we continue to share a relationship with those who have died. When we pray for the souls of the faithful departed, we are praying for those whose souls are journeying through purgatory, being prepared for eternal life in heaven. We believe that our prayers for them will help to speed their journey to eternal life with God in heaven.
