

Tridentine Community News

June 21, 2026 – Fourth Sunday After Pentecost

Recent Processions

The past few weeks have seen several inspiring processions offered by our local Latin Mass communities.

St. Thomas the Apostle offered a procession for the Rogation Day, May 13. Historically Rogation Day processions took place in the fields of rural communities, but this one went through busy Ann Arbor, Michigan. [Photo by Cory Lakatos and the Ann Arbor Latin Mass e-mail blast]

The Oakland County Latin Mass Association had a procession across the Orchard Lake Schools Campus to the Lourdes Grotto on June 7 for Corpus Christi. [Photo by Cindy Simon]

The St. Benedict Tridentine Community in Windsor had processions two Sundays in a row, on May 31 for the annual May Crowning [photo by Bogdan Onoszko], and on June 7 for Corpus Christi.

Canticle Chant Camp Returns to Ann Arbor

From the Ann Arbor Latin Mass e-mail blast:

After its tremendous success last year, St. Thomas will again host Canticle Chant Camp this summer from July 6-10. This weeklong day camp will immerse participants ages 8-18 in the beauty and riches of Gregorian chant and traditional Catholic sacred music, concluding with a Sung TLM at noon on Friday, July 10 at which campers will put into practice what they have learned.

- Also check out the Catholic News Agency article and Diocese of Lansing video from last year, featuring several people you will recognize!

As mentioned in previous editions of this column, Canticle is the amazingly successful entrepreneurial effort of San Diego's Mary Ann Carr Wilson. Mary Ann is also tentatively planning on attending and singing at the 3:00 PM Mass at St. Benedict/Holy Name of Mary Church in Windsor on Sunday, July 12.

Tridentine Masses This Coming Week

Tue 06/23 7:00 PM: Low Mass at St. Benedict/Holy Name of Mary (Vigil of the Nativity of St. John the Baptist)
