California Seminarian at Windsor Latin Mass

An unusually dressed figure has been attending the St. Benedict Latin Mass at Holy Name of Mary Church in Windsor: Jacob Child, who has been studying at St. Patrick Seminary in Menlo Park, California, has been home with his family in metro Detroit for the summer. At the enthusiastic encouragement of St. Patrick music director Dr. Jennifer Donelson-Nowicka, Jacob has been learning to sing for the Traditional Mass with Wassim Sarweh and the St. Benedict choir on Sundays, while learning to serve the Low Mass on Tuesdays. He hopes to make the TLM a part of his future priesthood.

Mary Kraychy, R.I.P.

Virtually everyone who attends the Traditional Latin Mass anywhere in the English-speaking world is aware of the ubiquitous Red Missals published by Chicago's Coalition Ecclesia Dei.

We recently learned that the founder of the Coalition and the author and publisher of the Red Missals (and their five sister edition missals), Mary Kraychy, quietly passed away on April 1, 2025. Having sold well over 1,000,000 missals, the Coalition has been taken over by Mary's former employees, ensuring that these effective worship aids will continue to be available to educate and edify the faithful.

Ann Arbor Walking Marian Pilgrimage

The Ann Arbor Latin Mass Community will offer its fourth annual Walking Marian Pilgrimage from St. Mary Parish in Manchester, MI to St. Thomas the Apostle, Ann Arbor Saturday-Sunday, Oct. 3-4. Registration and more information is available here:

San Francisco Priest Training Report #11

Our eleventh priest training report from San Francisco:

Congratulations to Fr. Longin Nduwayezu, Chancellor of the Diocese of Cyangugu, Rwanda, who celebrated his first Traditional Latin Mass on Wednesday, September 2, 2026, after training from Extraordinary Faith. Fr. Longin took the training during a visit to San Francisco. He celebrated his first public TLM at Star of the Sea Church in San Francisco at 7:00 AM on Wednesday, September 9, 2026. Special thanks to Bay Area TLM promoter Corinna Gamez for organizing the session.
