Holy Matrimony: A Sacred and Indissoluble Covenant Part 2 of 2

By James Murphy

- The three goods of marriage: Traditionally summarized as offspring (proles), fidelity (fides), and the sacramental/indissoluble bond (sacraméntum).
- Image of Christ and the Church: The union of husband and wife signifies the union between Christ and His Church (Ephesians 5).
- Sanctification: Sacramental grace strengthens the spouses' natural love, confirms their union, and helps make them holy.
- Duties of the husband: He should love, honor, protect, and provide for his wife and family, exercising his responsibilities according to Christian charity rather than tyranny.
- Duties of the wife: She is instructed to love and remain faithful to her husband, respect his marital authority, care for the household, and assist in raising the children in the faith.
- Christian family life: Husband and wife share responsibility for establishing a household ordered toward virtue, religion, and the salvation of the family.

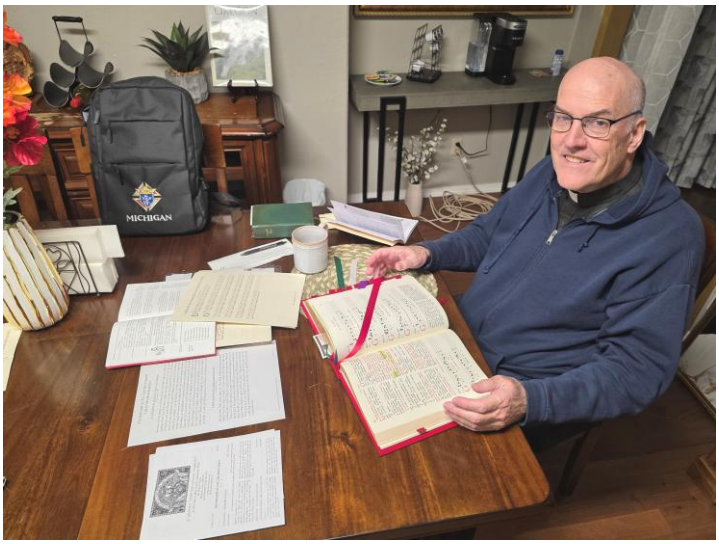

Sacred Scripture

Genesis 1:27–28 • Genesis 2:18–24 • Matthew 19:3–6 • Mark 10:6–9 • 1 Corinthians 7:10–11 • Ephesians 5:22–33

"Husbands, love your wives, as Christ also loved the church, and delivered himself up for it." — Ephesians 5:25

Medford, Oregon Priest Training Report #2

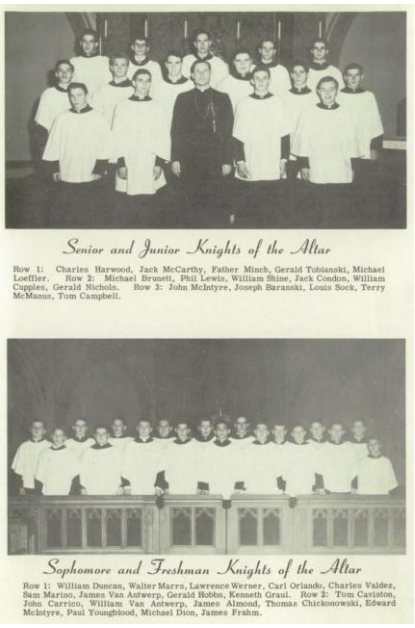

Occasionally Extraordinary Faith is asked to conduct a specialized form of training. On Wednesday and Thursday, October 21 and 22, 2026, Fr. Greg Veneklase, who already celebrates the Low Mass at Sacred Heart Church in Medford, Oregon, wanted to brush up on his skills and knowledge of the rubrics, as well as learn how to celebrate the Missa Cantata, or sung Mass. After these two days of study, Fr. Greg will celebrate his first Missa Cantata on a date yet to be determined at the weekly 3:30 PM Sunday TLM at Sacred Heart Church. Special thanks to Medford Latin Mass coordinator Mike Ford for organizing the training.

Historic Photos of St. Ambrose, Grosse Pointe Park

On October 2, 2026 church historian Michael Butler posted a set of 1953-54 photos of St. Ambrose Church, Grosse Pointe Park to the Facebook group I Went To Catholic School in Metro Detroit, depicting the pre-modernization sanctuary and parish life.
